Which NextEra method is best for autopay?

Checking account ACH. Routing and account numbers remain constant even when debit and credit cards are replaced with new numbers. This prevents the most common autopay failure: an expired card causing a silent draft rejection that leads to a past-due notice 10–30 days later.

What payment methods does NextEra NOT accept?

Cash (except some agent offices), cryptocurrency, wire transfers, PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, Apple Pay (except through app in some cases), and Google Pay. For the widest method acceptance at $0 fees, call 1-833-442-7583.

What risks does a missed NextEra payment create for electric?

NextEra, headquartered in Juno Beach, FL since 1925, enforces a 20-day grace period. After that, electric may be disconnected. Reconnection requires full past-due balance plus fees and is not guaranteed same day. A lapse in electric creates inconvenience and potential property damage. Call 1-833-442-7583 for same-day posting within 20 seconds to prevent disconnection.
